

End of Life Notice for SPT-NET-I and SPT-ARM

Jan 1, 2019

SPT-NET-I and SPT-ARM are End of Life (EOL) and no longer available for new customer deliveries or orders. Orders from existing customers of SPT-ARM will be accepted until inventory is depleted. The spTsrv is a compatible product alternative and is recommended for all orders going forward. Contact sales@ase-systems.com for more information.

Product Migration

Existing customers are offered a migration path to the SpTsrv product. SPT-4NET-I and SPT-ARM configuration files may be used unmodified in the spTsrv simplifying the migration. See the feature comparison table for details. Contact support@ase-systems.com for further information on new product and migration options and pricing.
